DAMODAR VALLEY CORPORATION

Calcutta, the 17th August 1978

No. 107.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 60 of the Damodar Valley Corporation Act, 1948 (14 of 1948), the Corporation, hereby makes, with the previous sanction of the Central Government, the following regulations further to amend the Damodar Valley Corporation Regulations, published with the notification of the Damodar Valley Corporation No. 5, dated the 28th January, 1957.

1. These Regulations may be called the Damodar Valley Corporation Service (36th Amendment) Regulations, 1978.

In the Damodar Valley Corporation Service Regulation,—

(i) after regulation 73A, the following regulation shall be, and shall be deemed to have been inserted on the 1st day of October, 1977, namely :—

"Regulation 73B Leave encashment unless otherwise specified in respect of any individual case, every employee of the Corporation in its regular establishment including workcharged and contingency paid employees who are in the time scales of pay but excluding probationers, trainees and apprentices may be granted encashment of Earned leave in accordance with the scheme as shown in Appendix III".

(ii) after Appendix II, the following Appendix shall be inserted as Appendix III, namely :—

APPENDIX—III

(See Regulation 73B)

Encashment of Earned Leave in the Damodar Valley Corporation

1. Objective

The scheme is introduced primarily to encourage the employees to avail of leave in a planned and systematic manner for the smooth running of the Corporation.

2. Coverage

The scheme covers all DVC employees in regular establishment including workcharged employees and contingency paid employees who are in time-scale of pay, but it excludes probationers, trainees and apprentices.

3. Sanctioning Authority

- (i) The authority competent to sanction earned leave will be the sanctioning authority for encashment of leave under these rules.
- (ii) The leave sanctioning authority (Heads of Deptts./ Heads of Offices) for the purpose of encashment of leave under these rules will draw up annual leave programme in respect of Officers and Staff under their control according to suitability in a planned and systematic manner with a view to reduce absenteeism to the extent possible.

4. Encashment benefits

- (i) The rate of pay and allowance for the purpose of encashment of leave will be the same as the rate applicable for leave salary.
- (ii) The encashment benefits shall not be reckoned as wages/salary while working out overtime, gratuity, provident fund, bonus equivalent or ex-gratia payments.
- (iii) An employee willing to avail himself of the benefit of this rules should fill in the prescribed application form and submit the same alongwith his leave application. Encashment cannot be applied for, after availing of leave.

5. Eligibility

- (i) An employee may apply for encashment of earned leave only and not holidays, or any other kind of leave.
- (ii) Encashment of leave will be allowed only when an employee is proceeding on at least 15 days' earned leave.

- (iii) Application for leave for this purpose should be submitted to the sanctioning authority at least 30 days before the date from which the leave is to take effect. Encashment will be allowed only upto the extent of half of the earned leave standing to the credit of an employee on the date proceeding the date on which he proceeds on leave, subject to a minimum of 15 days and maximum of 60 days, provided that the period of encashment shall not exceed the period of leave availed.
- (iv) Encashment will be permissible only once a year and only when the employee has not taken earned leave exceeding 15 days at a time or exceeding 15 days in all during the preceding 12 months.

If leave is refused to an employee who has accumulated leave to the maximum, a record shall be kept of the refusal and the amount of encashment that he would have been entitled to, had leave been granted, will be added to the encashment he avails of when he next goes on leave. Any such refusal, involving an encashment benefit of this kind, shall be made only with the approval of the Chairman, DVC. A refusal has to be followed by actual leave taking and shall not be followed by another refusal.

K. K. SAHA
Deputy General Manager

"EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM"

The scheme on 'leave encashment' was approved by the Ministry in its Telex No. 8516, dated 30-8-1977. The date of effect of the scheme shall be from the first of October, 1977.

The scheme was under consideration of the Corporation since 1970 and as the publication in the Official Gazette of the Government of India is likely to take further time, to obviate the delay in implementation of the scheme as committed to the employees Unions the date of effect has been given from the 1st October, 1977."
